Mum makes a shopping list for him. This list has everything we need for the whole week: bread, milk, cheese, yoghurt, some juice, butter, oil, rice, flour, some apples and many, many more.

Dad goes shopping in the morning because he says he likes when it's quiet in the shop. There aren't a lot of people there. He comes back after one hour or sometimes two, especially when he also goes to a car wash.

Sometimes he takes me, too. I help him and I put the things into the shopping trolley. I like to go with my father because I always ask him to buy some crisps or chewing gum.

Dad brings all the shopping to our flat and says "Time for breakfast!" We quickly help him unpack the big box full of shopping.
